

PRIVACY POLICY

Institute of Construction and Urban Economic Research

1. Introduction and Scope

1.1. Introduction

The Institute of Construction and Urban Economic Research ("the Institute," "we," or "our") is committed to protecting the privacy and personal data of employees, clients, website visitors, and other individuals. This Privacy Policy explains our practices regarding the collection, use, disclosure, and protection of personal data. By interacting with our services, you agree to the terms of this policy.

1.2. Scope

This policy applies to all personal data collected and processed by the Institute through its websites, mobile applications, services, and any other interactions with us. It governs the handling of information in all forms, including electronic and physical. Compliance with this policy is mandatory for all employees, contractors, and third parties processing personal data on behalf of the Institute.

2. Information We Collect

2.1. Personal Data You Provide

We collect personal data that you voluntarily provide when you:

- Apply for a position: Name, contact information, resume, educational background, and work history.
- Use our services: Name, email address, phone number, and any other information necessary to provide our services.
- Contact us: Name and contact details when you submit an inquiry or request customer support.
- Subscribe to our newsletter: Your email address.

2.2. Information Collected Automatically

When you visit our website, we may automatically collect certain information, including:

- Usage Data: Information about how you use our website, such as pages viewed, time spent on pages, and navigation paths.
- Technical Data: IP address, browser type and version, operating system, and device identifiers.
- Location Data: General location information (e.g., city or country) based on your IP address.

2.3. Cookies and Tracking Technologies

We use cookies and similar tracking technologies to enhance your experience, analyze website traffic, and understand user behavior. You can control the use of cookies through your browser settings.

3. How We Use Your Information

We use the personal data we collect for the following purposes:

- To Provide Our Services: To fulfill contractual obligations, process transactions, and provide customer support.
- To Improve Our Services: To analyze data to enhance functionality, performance, and user experience on our websites and services.
- For Marketing and Communication: To send you updates, newsletters, and promotional materials that may interest you. You may opt out of these communications at any time.
- For Recruitment: To process your job application and assess your suitability for a position at the Institute.
- For Security: To monitor and protect the security of our systems, prevent fraud, and investigate suspicious activities.
- For Legal Compliance: To comply with legal obligations, enforce our terms of service, and resolve disputes.

4. Sharing and Disclosure of Data

We will not sell or rent your personal data to third parties. We may share your information in the following cases:

- With Service Providers: We may share data with trusted third-party service providers who assist us in business operations (e.g., hosting services, payment processors, analytics services). These providers are contractually obligated to protect your data and use it only for the purposes we specify.
- For Legal Reasons: We may disclose your information if required by law or government authorities, or if we believe it is necessary to protect our rights, property, or safety, or those of others.
- Business Transfers: In the event of a merger, acquisition, or asset sale, your personal data may be transferred to the new entity. We will ensure the new entity is bound by a privacy policy offering equivalent protection.

- With Your Consent: We may share your data with other third parties if you have explicitly consented to such sharing.

5. Your Rights as a Data Subject

We respect individuals' rights regarding their personal data. You have the right to:

- Access: Request a copy of the personal data we hold about you.
- Rectification: Request correction of any inaccurate or incomplete data.
- Erasure (Right to be Forgotten): Request deletion of your personal data in certain circumstances (e.g., when the data is no longer needed for its original purpose).
- Restriction of Processing: Request that we restrict the processing of your data.
- Objection: Object to the processing of your data for direct marketing purposes.
- Data Portability: Receive your data in a structured, commonly used, and machine-readable format.
- Withdrawal of Consent: Withdraw your consent to data processing at any time, where processing is based on consent.

To exercise any of these rights, please contact our Data Protection Officer using the contact information provided below.

6. Data Security and Retention

6.1. Security Measures

We have implemented appropriate technical and organizational measures to protect your personal data from unauthorized access, loss, destruction, or accidental damage. These measures include:

- Technical Measures: Data encryption, secure networks, access controls, and regular security audits.
- Organizational Measures: Employee training on data protection, clean desk policies, and secure document storage.

6.2. Data Retention

We will not retain your personal data longer than necessary to fulfill the purposes for which it was collected or as required by law. We have established a data retention schedule specifying retention periods for different types of data.

7. Changes to This Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time to reflect changes in our practices or legal requirements. We will notify you of any significant changes by posting the updated policy on our website and updating the “Last Updated” date at the top of the document.
